

Service-Learning and School-To-Work
Service-Learning Attributes	School-To-Work Attributes
Students <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Life and work-based skills • All Students • Academic Skills (single discipline or interdisciplinary) • Citizenship Skills • Interpersonal and team skills • Problem solving skills • Career development • Applied learning (Service) projects • Un-paid work experience • Team or class activities which are student directed 	Students <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Life and work-based skills • All Students • Academic Skills (interdisciplinary) • Citizenship Skills • Interpersonal and team skills • Problem solving skills • Career development • Applied learning (work) projects • Paid or un-paid work experience • Individual student activities which address student career interests
Schools <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Integrated into the curriculum • Small learning communities (teams, classes) • Applied learning (Service) projects • No tracking • School and community partnerships • Academic and performance assessment 	Schools <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Integrated into the curriculum • Small learning communities (teams, classes) • Applied learning (Work) projects • No tracking • School and business partnerships • Academic and performance assessment
Teachers <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Teacher as coach/facilitator • Interdisciplinary teams 	Teachers <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Teacher and employer as mentors • Interdisciplinary teams
Community agencies/business <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student service linked to academics • Community partners volunteer as coach/facilitator • Career paths • Real world community needs are addressed 	Community agencies/business <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student service linked to academics • Community partners volunteer as coach/facilitator • Career paths • Real world business needs are addressed